Objective of FDP

The main objective of this FDP is to foster a thriving entrepreneurial ecosystem by exploring Research & Innovation Policies. These policies aim to create a supportive environment for startups, from initial ideation to market launch, by providing resources, mentorship, and infrastructure. The objective of exploring the learning methods and development schemes is to focus on government initiatives that provide funding, support, and incentives for research and development activities.

Key aspects

The key aspects of this FDP are to provide:

- Policy Framework: Establishing Institution's Innovation Councils (IICs), allocating budgets for activities, and developing an "Innovation Tool Kit" for students and innovators.
- Support for Students and Faculty: support for students and faculty who want to pursue their ideas, including funding, access to facilities, and mentorship.
- Incubation and Acceleration: Incubation Cell provides physical space, resources, and support for early-stage startups, helping them transition from idea to product or service. Acceleration programs provide further guidance and resources to help startups grow and scale.
- Learning Methods: Workshops and Training- (business planning, intellectual property, and funding), Mentorship Programs- (Connecting students and faculty with experienced entrepreneurs and industry experts), Case Studies- (Analyzing the successes and failures of real-world startups), Entrepreneurship Development Cells- (serve as a hub for students and faculty to explore their entrepreneurial ideas, connect with resources, and build their networks),
- Focus Areas: agriculture, energy, healthcare, education, and e-commerce.
- Virtual Incubation: Allows startups to access resources and support remotely.
- Resource Mobilization: for pre-incubation, incubation infrastructure, and facilities.
- Intellectual Property: address the protection and management of intellectual property generated during research and innovation.
- Funding: financial assistance to researchers, institutions, and industries involved in R&D activities.

- Infrastructure: support the establishment and improvement of research infrastructure, including laboratories, equipment, and facilities.
- Training and Capacity Building: training researchers, providing fellowships, and building human capacity in R&D.
- Collaboration and Networking: collaboration between research institutions, industry, and other stakeholders.
- Technology Transfer: transfer of research findings to the market, leading to the development of new products and services.
- Specific Objectives: promoting research in certain areas or supporting particular groups (e.g., women scientists, young scientists).
